

get the other person to return Raza's money, but to no avail.

The builder in his complaint said he received a call from an international number on June 15 and found it was Raza on the line. Raza told him to make arrangements to retrieve the Rs 10 lakh he had loaned his friend, failing which he would get a call from Fahim Machmach in a few minutes. After sometime, Machmach called the mobile phone of the builder and told him to Rs 1.50 crore ready. Machmach threatened to kill the builder if he was not paid. Raza was booked for making the extortion call. Raza is at present in Mumbai police custody under police remand until July 29. Surat police has sought a warrant to produce Raza before the Surat district court. "Once we get it we will submit it to the Mumbai court, and after the police remand of Raza ends we will take custody of him and bring him back to Surat," Sarwaiya said. "We suspect that he might have made extortion calls to a few other businessmen in the city."
